

Terms & Conditions

The Bonus Account is a type of savings account visible in the Client's Personal Account Management Portal alongside their trading accounts. Any bonuses received by the Client are automatically credited to the Bonus Account. Bonus funds are funds denominated in USDT (account currency) which may be used for trading and profit-gaining purposes, but may not be withdrawn directly from the account. The amount of bonus funds held by the Client on his or her trading account may not exceed 20% of the total account balance. The Client's real money balance must first be exhausted before any bonus funds may be used to grant a trade. Any excess of bonus funds on the Client's trading account shall be automatically transferred to his or her Bonus Account.

To use the promo code, simply enter the promo code (combination of letters and numbers) on the given website or on the StormGain platform. The bonus is credited in accordance with the promo code's denomination. The process of crediting might take up to 2 working days as of the moment of the client's registration on the StormGain platform. The bonuses are not credited over weekends or public holidays, which includes the days from the 1st to the 8th of January, 2020. To start using the bonus, you have to fund your account with your own real money.
